ALTESS Today and Into the Future

- Who we are: Acquisition, Logistics & Technology Enterprise Systems and Services (ALTESS) is a Premier Army Information Technology Managed Service Provider with a 15 year proven track record of providing Enterprise level IT systems to the Army and DoD.
- What we do: Assess, Remediate, Modernize, Migrate and Manage Applications and Systems in the cloud and at on premise data centers, at a cost competitive rate. We currently serve as the lead Army Enterprise Data Center (AEDC) supporting the Army's data center consolidation initiative. We also directly support the Enterprise Cloud Management Agency (ECMA) with the Army's Cloud initiative(s) by providing services to ~100 systems in Microsoft's Azure commercial cloud.
- Where we are heading:
  - Assist Army customers with the modernization and migration of their applications into cArmy
  - Complete additional migrations for Army Material Command into the cArmy
  - Assist Project Manager Integrated Enterprise Network (PM-IEN) with discrete efforts related to the Enterprise Services Infrastructure Capability Development Document (ESI CDD)
  - Continue to support NETCOM on data center consolidation efforts

Information for Industry

As a reimbursable Army organization ALTESS operates solely based on customer demand signal. The ALTESS mission continues to grow and expand based on the Army and DoD's operational needs. Below are areas of potential growth which may result in the need for specialized support.

- Demand for migrations into cArmy
- Level of support provided to Project Manager Integrated Enterprise Network (PM-IEN) on requirements from the ESI CDD
- Strategic direction of the Army's hybrid cloud initiative

Where you can help

- Application modernization and migration expertise
- Ways to optimize operation and sustainment of applications in the cloud
- Automation tools and expertise for environments both on premise and in the cloud
- Enterprise management tools to oversee hundreds of systems in the cloud
